What is Afrobarometer?

- An African-led, non-partisan survey research project that measures citizen attitudes on democracy and governance, the economy, civil society, and other topics.
- Goal: To give the public a voice in policy-making by providing high-quality public opinion data to policy makers, policy advocates, civil society organizations, academics, news media, donors and investors, and ordinary Africans.
- National Partners in each country conduct the survey. In Uganda, Afrobarometer Round 6 survey was conducted by Hatchile Consult Ltd.

Cape Verde
Methodology

• Nationally representative sample of adult citizens
  □ All respondents are randomly selected.
  □ Sample is distributed across 5 regions (Kampala, Central, West, North, and East) and urban/rural areas in proportion to their share in the national population.
  □ Every adult citizen has an equal chance of being selected.

• Face-to-face interviews in the language of the respondent’s choice.

• Standard questionnaire allows comparisons across countries and over time.

• Sample size in Uganda of 2,400 adult citizens yields results with a margin of error of +/-2% at a 95% confidence level.

• Fieldwork for Round 6 in Uganda was conducted May 8-26, 2015.

Results and Analysis
Understanding Demand for and Supply of Elections in Uganda

SUPPORT FOR ELECTIONS
Key findings

- 9 in 10 adult Ugandans prefer to choose leaders through regular, open and honest elections.

- Over the last decade and a half, support for elections in Uganda has averaged 88%, among the top 10 on the continent.

- Majority not satisfied with quality of elections

- Majority demand for electoral reform
Respondents were asked: Which of the following statements is closest to your view. Choose Statement 1 or Statement 2. Statement 1: We should choose our leaders in this country through regular, open and honest elections. Statement 2: Since elections produce bad results, we should adopt other methods of choosing this country’s leaders.
Respondents were asked two questions:

1. There are many ways to govern a country. Would you disapprove or approve of the following alternative: Elections and Parliament are abolished so that the president can decide everything? (% who “approve” or “strongly approve”)

2. Which of the following statements is closest to your view? Choose Statement 1 or Statement 2. Statement 1: We should choose our leaders in this country through regular, open, and honest elections. Statement 2: Since elections sometimes produce bad results, we should adopt other methods for choosing this country’s leaders. (% who “agree” or “strongly agree”)
Satisfaction with elections
Respondents were asked: On the whole, how would you rate the freeness and fairness of last national election? (Percent who say “free and fair, with minor problems” and “completely free and fair”)

Respondents were asked: Which of the following do you see as the most important issue that should be addressed ahead of the 2016 general elections?
Support for various electoral reforms ahead of the 2016 elections | 2015

Respondents were asked: Do you agree or disagree with the following suggestions for electoral reforms ahead of the 2016 general elections in Uganda? (% who “agree” or “strongly agree”)

- Bar special needs voters from voting: 33%
- Presidential candidates to name running mate: 55%
- President not to appoint Electoral Commission commissioners: 57%
- Declare election results at constituency: 80%
- Ban convicts of vote buying from future elections: 86%
Respondents were asked: Which of the following do you see as the most important issue that should be addressed ahead of the 2016 general elections? (% who provided substantive response)
Figure shows: A cross-tabulation of those who feel close to political party (Which political party do you feel close to?) and support for electoral reforms (support for reforms rescaled into two trunks, those who support 0 to 3 reforms scaled into “Low Support” and those who support 4 to 6 reforms into “High Support” for reforms; quality of election gap scaled into 3 trunks, those scored negative, neutral and positive)
Who wants electoral reforms in Uganda?

Conclusions
Who is for electoral reforms in Uganda?

- Afrobarometer data show that the demand for electoral reforms appears related to the gap between Support for Elections and Quality of Elections in Uganda.

- Demand for reforms appears mostly based on political party support, cognitive ability, trust (in the electoral commission), support for democracy and on perceived quality of elections in Uganda.

- Satisfaction with quality of elections is strongly related with public trust in the electoral commission.
